HOLISTA ENTERS INTO EXCLUSIVE SUPPLY ARRANGEMENT WITH NEWLY LAUNCHED MULTI LEVEL MARKETING COMPANY

The Health Supplement Division of Holista CollTech Limited ('HCT' or 'Holista') has entered into an exclusive supply arrangement with recently launched multi level marketing company, iGalen Pte Ltd (iGalen) (www.igalen.com). This company focuses on selling products that naturally reduce inflammation via the established multi level marketing system.

iGalen will sell its products in the ASEAN region and Australia in the course of this year. The company just launched in Malaysia in January 2015.

In this deal, Holista will supply several ground breaking products into the network developed by iGalen.

"We are very happy sign up this supply relationship as Holista as the company has a good range of products that patented and scientifically validated products and technologies that would assist us in creating the range of product in line with our mission and values" said Halimatul Liza Abdul Halim, the director of iGalen.

"We are happy to enter into in this collaboration as there is a clear strategic fit in our products and the message that iGalen wants to promote and develop" said Dr. Rajen Manicka, CEO of HCT.

Among products that will be part of the deal are:

1. Emulin (world's first carbohydrate management system) – Please refer to our Release on 2 February 2015
2. Ovinex (Holista's patented food grade sheep collagen) – now in final stages of development
3. Patented hyaluroic acid for pain management via skin application
4. Highly bioavailable turmeric
5. Highly bioavailable form of Korean ginseng
